

Contents

Figures	vii
Tables	ix
Glossary	xi
Abbreviations	xiii
Preface	xv
Olena Fedyuk and Paul Stewart
Acknowledgements	xvii
Introduction: Migrants' Inclusion and Exclusion in the Context of Precarization of Working Lives in the Post-Enlargement EU	1
Olena Fedyuk and Paul Stewart
SECTION I: CHANGES IN EMPLOYMENT AND MIGRATION TO THE EU	15
I.1 Changes in Employment: The Role of the State and Its Reconfiguration in the Liberalisation of Employment Policies	17
Jamie Woodcock
I.2 The Political Economy of an Ongoing Crisis: How Institutional Evolution Is Shaping Employment and Migration in Europe	35
Ben Egan
I.3 Migration Policies and Their Underlying Threats: Going Beyond the Polarization of EU Versus Non-EU Migration Policies	57
Nina Sahraoui, Radostław Polkowski and Mateusz Karolak

SECTION II: SPECTRUM OF MIGRANTS' INCLUSION AND EXCLUSION	79
II.1 'Hidden Injuries' of Migration From CEE: Polish Workers in the UK Radosław Polkowski	81
II.2 Non-EU Migrant Workers in For-profit Older-age Care Facilities in London: Capital's Use of Multiple Borders for the Extension of Its Own Frontiers Nina Sahraoui	101
II.3 Female Migrants' Agency: Work Trajectories of Polish Women in the UK Karima Aziz	123
II.4 'Once You See That It Can Be Otherwise, Then You Expect Something Else': The Labour Experience of Polish Migrant Returnees from the UK Mateusz Karolak	147
SECTION III: COLLECTIVE PERSPECTIVES ON INCLUSION AND EXCLUSION	169
III.1 Trade Unions' Responses at the Intersection of Class and Migration Karima Aziz, Ben Egan and Radosław Polkowski	171
III.2 The Social Articulation of the Crisis and Political Mobilisation in Spain: Some Reflections on the Shortcomings of the New Social Movements Martin Lundsteen and Irene Sabaté	197
III.3 Obstacles Before Struggles: Freedom of Movement and the Conditioning of Collective Response Raia Apostolova	221
III.4 Precariousness in Unlikely Places: The Role of High-skilled Migrant Worker Networks in Resisting and Reproducing Precarity Chibuzo Ejiogu	239
Conclusions	269
Round-Table Debate: Is Collective Response from a Mobile Workforce Possible? In Search of New Analytical Paradigms	277
Index	293
About the Contributors	299